We understand at this writing that Eric Caleca has suffered a stroke. . Brother Jack said that he had a stroke in the barn on Friday and another in the hospital on Saturday morning. Eric was in intensive care until Tuesday and then transferred to Kessler Rehabilitation in Chester. Cards can be sent to Eric Caleca, Room 206, Kessler Rehabilitation, Pleasant Hill Rd., Chester, NJ 07930

Marie Yeaton suffered a fall and resulting broken hip at her home. Marie is in Barn Hill Convalescent Center, Newton, NJ. Cards may be sent to Marie there and she would love to hear from you!

Flowering Plums Jewel competed in her second dressage show Sunday at Oxbow Stables in Hamburg. Ridden by Donna Raquet, the three year old Half-Welsh pony earned respectable scores of 62% in Introductory Test A, and 62.5% in Introductory Test B. Donna also qualified for the United States Dressage Federation Silver Medal in June. This prestigious rider's award requires two scores of 60% or higher at both Fourth Level and Prix St. Georges. Donna was partnered with her 15+ hand Dutch-bred e-pony, Willem Sandor, by the part-Welsh pony stallion Orchard d'Avanches, one of the leading pony sires in the Netherlands. Congratulations Donna, Jewel and Willem Sandor!

In Memoriam: Sparky, the 29 year old Hackney Pony owned by Marian Smith, was euthanized in August due to effects of Leukemia and Cushings Disease. We're so sorry Marian!

Chuck Ruitenbergh of Andover has been having a great time training and showing his Classic Shetland Stallion Lusts Mark of Excellence. "Marky" as he is known is doing very well in halter classes, has been ground driven and may already be hooked and driving as we speak. This four year old stallion is by the beautiful black & white stallion Lusts Sammy C. How many of you remember Chuck showing in the NJPBO Showmanship Classes as a youth, and cleaning up so to speak under the tutelage of his well known Aunt and Uncle Helen and Charlie Lust. Glad to hear you're back 'in the saddle' Chuck!

Betty Seablade, now in Middletown, NY is keeping busy with her Shetland ponies. Betty, who is not campaigning her ponies any longer has found retirement from the show ring very rewarding teaching neighborhood kids how to handle, show, ride and drive the ponies; and escorts both the kids and ponies to various local shows. What a wonderful way to promote the Shetland Pony breed and keep her students involved! We need more people like you out there Betty!

Ron and Jean Cronk of Kinnelon have really cleaned up in the Shetland divisions this year in New Jersey with their beautiful ponies, both in halter and performance! And I understand the Cronks also have a couple of their Shetlands on the National Circuit with expert trainer and showman Bill Eperthener. We'll be hearing more of the Cronk's ponies I am sure Congratulations!

Sara Bloomer's Welsh Cob Stallion Windcrest Desert Storm went Supreme Champion at the 2008 National Welsh Show, Syracuse, NY under British Judge Gwyn Berry and Reserve Supreme under Kinko Hackney. Desert also, for the second time, qualified for the Champion of Champions title at the Royal Winter Fair in Canada. Sara has had Desert since 1992 when he was a year and a half old, and this year at 17 years old and not having been shown in ten years, she decided to bring Desert out again in Syracuse. We are also very proud of our Section B stallion Eclipse for winning the Welsh Pony Championship All Ages/Sexes at the NJPBO All Pony Show in June.

After a hiatus in breeding and showing since we lost GlanNant Bard in 2004, we've recovered our interest in continuing to breed Welsh ponies and cobs with focus on the Welsh Breed Standard. We believe that by concentrating GlanNant and Bristol lines which derive from Welsh pony and cob crosses going back to Criban Victor rather than diluting the Welsh blood with outside breeds we have a better chance at keeping the best characteristics of the Welsh breed ... type, bone, movement, stamina and disposition. Our ponies are showing in various disciplines. We currently have a 12.2h mare, Cross Creek Ember, showing pony hunters on Long Island and a Cob mare training to show with Rosie Mally in dressage.

We're expecting four foals in 2009, our GlanNant Bard daughter Cross Creek ByDesign has been bred to C. the Monarch (Bristol Houdini x Bristol Safire), GlanNant Fairytale has been bred to Bristol Victorio (Rosmel Cotillion x Lithgow Wishnik), and our Bristol Serafina (Lithgow Houdini x Bristol Serendipity) is bred to our Eclipse (Bristol Encore x Bristol Safire). Our last foal for 2009 is expected out of M. Ballet (GlanNant Mariner x GlanNant Polonaise) and by Bristol Victorio, and will be co-owned by the Shields, Decatur, Illinois owner of Victorio. Visit our website at <http://www.casmaranstud.com> for pictures, videos and information.

Sounds like a great year for Welsh Congratulations!

We hear Marian Smith had the ride of her life, so to speak! Evidently Marian attended the Rhinebeck New York Fair where Bob Commerford of Connecticut exhibited his famous six in hand black Shetland pony hitch. Marian was invited to ride in the carriage, and we've been told that Marian was delighted and honored at the experience. We understand that the entire pony team is sired by Lusts Black Onyx, aka Spider. Spider was purchased by Bob a number of years ago and is his all-time favorite!

ALL-PONY DRESSAGE A HIT

Tropical storm Hannah's rampage the previous day couldn't put a damper on the third annual All-Pony Dressage Show run by New Jersey Pony Breeder's and Owners, Inc. on September 7th. The show was organized by members Donna Raquet and Sharon Stewart. Richard and Heather Prant once again generously hosted the event at their exquisite Millbrook Farm in Flemington. The footing in both the warm-up area and in the arena showed not a hint of Hannah's onslaught. Twenty ponies of various breeds were scheduled to come down center line in 44 rides. While Welsh cross ponies predominated, the Arabian, Welsh, Paint, Morgan, and National Show Horse Breeds were also represented, ridden by 9 juniors and 7 adults.

The Horseman's Outlet Perpetual Trophy for the high average of the day was awarded to Piccalilly's Pippa, a five year-old Half-Welsh Cob by North Forks King Lloyd, owned and ridden by Paige DiRoberto of Pittstown, NJ. The 14.1 hand bay mare averaged 68.6% in her rides at Training Level Tests 2 and 3.

Khomet Parade, an 11 year-old Arabian gelding owned by Tony Sementelli of Yorktown Heights, NY, won a Brid-Ovr halter donated by Empty Pocket Farm for earning the highest individual score, 70.4% for Training Level Test 2. The 14.3 hand bay was shown by Jean Hurley of Northvale, NJ.

The show received enthusiastic praise, summed up by this comment from one of the participants: "Thank you for a lovely day! Beautiful facility and a well-organized, low-key show. This was my pony's first off-site show (2nd show ever) and it was a great event for her".

Everyone is looking forward to next year's show.

! Congratulations !

Paige DiRoberto and her 2008 Horseman's Outlet Perpetual Trophy winner, half -Welsh Cob Piccalilly's Pippa
